NEW STUDENTS
enrolled in Fall 2022

ICUE CONNECTOR

International Programs, Community Engagement,
Undergraduate Research, & Experiential Learning

As part of a $19M USAID Project, ICUE hosted 2 cohorts of female Pakistani faculty members, providing transformative skills and empowering participants to assume higher leadership roles.

ICUE equipped advisors to better engage students seeking experiential learning opportunities through a 10-day study abroad trip to South Africa.

New College's Applied Liberal Arts and Sciences major was approved and will begin Fall 2023. Through a combination of discipline-specific knowledge and critical thinking skills required in the contemporary workplace, the program will promote retention and degree completion.

DEVELOPMENT

The Robert F. Olin Endowed Distinguished Lecture Series in Science and Mathematics was established.

The Robert F. Olin Endowed Distinguished Lecture Series in Science and Mathematics was established and endowed by Dean Emeritus Robert F. Olin to bring successful and distinguished speakers to campus to discuss how the sciences have impacted society and humanity, through the lenses of the research of the speaker and others in their respective fields.

The Walter and Hazel Jones Endowed Directorship was established with a $1.5 million gift from the Semmes Foundation.

This Directorship will attract and retain a top professional museum executive director to the University of Alabama Museums and will provide critical support for the Museums.
